Disclaimer and Release– Read Carefully Before Signing Below

Mid-South Real Estate Investors Association, Inc. hereafter called the "Association", does not render legal, tax, economic or investment advice. The Association does not investigate its members, nor vouch for nor make representation as to the honesty, integrity, reliability, motives and/or resources of its members, officers, directors, employees, agents, and or contractors. A person should consult his or her own, counsel, accountant, and other advisors as to risks and legal, tax, economic, investment and other matters concerning real estate and other investments. The undersigned Applicant, in consideration for his/her acceptance as a member of the Association, hereby releases, discharges and agrees to indemnify the Association, its officers, directors, members, employees, agents, and/or contractors from any liabilities now accrued, or which may hereafter accrue, from their actions, inactions, or communications made by the Association and/or officers, directors, members, employees, agents, and/or contractors in or through their respective capacities with the Association. Members agree to comply with the Code of Ethics and the By-Laws of the Association. Member appoints Mid-South REIA, the Non-Exclusive Attorney-in-fact to enforce ethics code violations.

*By including my email & fax, I accept receipt of Association updates and Marketing.
